

For Immediate Release
January 22, 2014

MEDIA CONTACT: Edwina Blackwell Clark
(419) 234-5440

Rhodes State College Accepting Outstanding Alumni Nominations

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is now accepting nominations for the 2014 Outstanding Alumni Award. Nominations may be submitted by anyone. The Outstanding Alumni Award has been presented annually since 1988 to alumni of Lima Technical College or Rhodes State College who have distinguished themselves in both their profession and community service activities. More than 16,000 people are alumni of the College.

The outstanding alumni's accomplishments may emphasize professional, social or educational values. The recipient will be honored at the Rhodes State commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 3, 2014.

Kevin L. Reeks, Executive Director of Development at Rhodes State, said, "Rhodes State College's alumni are all around us, improving our quality of life through their professional work and community service every day. We applaud their great accomplishments and are privileged to seek nominations for this prestigious award."

To nominate a graduate, go to <http://www.RhodesState.edu/AlumniNomination>. All nominations are due February 18.

#