

For Immediate Release January 19, 2012

MEDIA CONTACT: Paula Siebeneck

(419) 995-8458

Rhodes State Accepting Outstanding Alumni Nominations

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is now accepting nominations for the 2012 Outstanding Alumni Award. Nominations may be submitted by anyone. The Outstanding Alumni award has been presented annually since 1988 to alumni of Lima Technical College or Rhodes State College who have distinguished themselves in both their profession and community service activities. These accomplishments may emphasize professional, social, religious and/or educational values. Past recipients represent a wide variety of area citizenship, leadership and professional excellence. The recipient will be honored at the Rhodes State commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 9, 2012.

"We are pleased to pay tribute and recognize those alumni who have great accomplishments and used their Rhodes State education to become fine stewards in their communities," said Dr. Debra McCurdy, Rhodes State College President.

Those interested in nominating a graduate, can visit the web site at www.RhodesState.edu or call the Rhodes State Alumni Relations Office at (419) 995-8051 to receive a nomination packet, which is due on or before Friday, February 24, 2012.

###