

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 3, 2014

MEDIA CONTACT: Rick Kohli
(419) 995-8386

Rhodes State Offers Summer Police Academy

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is offering a Basic Police Academy this summer. After successful completion of the Police Academy training, students are qualified to take the required Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC) certification test to be a peace officer in Ohio.

The class sessions are scheduled from May 3, - August 19, 2014. Application deadline is March 21, 2014. Academy orientations will take place on March 25 and March 26, 2014.

All students participating in the police academy must: 1) be at least 21 years of age at completion of academy, 2) pass an Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification & Investigation (BCI & I) and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) records check, and 3) pass a physical examination by student's physician.

The training course consists of 600 instructional hours (22 semester college credit hours may be applied toward the two-year, associate degree in Law Enforcement at Rhodes State). Financial aid is available for qualified students.

Classes are Monday through Friday from 8am-4:30pm. Students interested should call William Applegate at (419) 995-8195.

###