Rhodes State College Offers Program to Help Adults Prepare for College

LIMA, Ohio — Rhodes State College is offering a four-part series of classes to help adults prepare for college. Quick Start helps adults learn what they need to know about returning to or starting college and provides success strategies and information on career exploration and financial aid.

The Quick Start classes are from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesdays – September 10, 17, 24 & October 1. The first class is in Room 119 in the Life & Physical Sciences Building. The program ends with a completion ceremony and admission to Rhodes State College.

All sessions are free and located at Rhodes State, 4240 Campus Drive, Lima, Ohio. For more information, call Phyllis Henderson, Director of Community Outreach, at (419) 995-8168. The College offers more than 75 degrees and certificates.
