

Dear Student:

As you register for fall classes, remember Fall Semester starts August 22, 2012 at Rhodes State College.

Please keep in mind that you may want to adjust the credit hour load to accommodate the new semester structure. Under the quarter system, you could complete an associate degree in 6 quarters. Under the semester system, you could be able to complete an associate degree in 4 semesters if that is your goal. On the new semester system, there will be fewer credit hours to take but there are also fewer terms to complete those credit hours. Therefore, you may want to consider taking 14-19* credit hours depending upon the total number of credit hours in the degree program in which you are enrolled.
