

For Immediate Release
January 28, 2015

MEDIA CONTACT: Paula Siebeneck
(419) 302-8222

Rhodes State College Accepting Outstanding Alumni Nominations

LIMA, Ohio – Rhodes State College is now accepting nominations for the 2015 Outstanding Alumni Award. Nominations may be submitted by anyone. The Outstanding Alumni Award has been presented annually since 1988 to alumni of Lima Technical College or Rhodes State College who have distinguished themselves in both their profession and community service activities. More than 16,500 people are alumni of the College.

The outstanding alumni's accomplishments may emphasize professional, social or educational values. The recipient will be honored at the Rhodes State commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 9, 2015.

Kevin L. Reeks, Executive Director of Development at Rhodes State, said, "Rhodes State College alumni are all around us, improving the quality of life in our region and far beyond. We applaud their great accomplishments and are honored to accept nominations for this prestigious award."

To nominate a graduate, go to <http://www.RhodesState.edu/AlumniNomination>. All nominations are due February 26.

###